

VISAS

1. Appointment is needed to apply for a visa, documentation must be sent to the consulate by email pasaportes@conpernj.org.
2. If you would like to verify if your nationality requires a visa to Peru, please visit our website <https://cdn.www.gob.pe/uploads/document/file/3255212/Requerimientos%20de%20visa%20para%20ciudadanos%20extranjeros.pdf>
3. To apply for visas regarding immigration status for artist, designated workers, residents, Independent professionals, Student, Religious, Foreign Investors or Immigrant, please visit the following link: <https://www.gob.pe/migraciones>
4. To confirm the status of an authorization regarding artist, work residency or student visas, please write an email to pasaportes@conpernj.org with your name, contact information, type of visa and immigrations assignation number.
5. Please be advised that we only receive visa applications by applicants bearing legal residence in the U.S. or authorized work and student visas. Those who currently hold Tourist status in the U.S. must apply for a visa to Peru with the Peruvian Consulate holding jurisdiction over their country of residency.
6. The presentation of a Visa application does not guarantee the issuance of a visa. Each application is individually evaluated by a Peruvian consular officer. Once the documentation is presented, you will be subject to a personal interview with the Consul who will then determine the approval or decline of the visa. Additional information could be requested for further evaluation.
